

APPLICATION FOR MEDICAL RECORDS

I, Detective H. Faulkner, of the Raleigh Police Department, being duly sworn, request that the court issue an order to produce and provide the medical record described in this application. There is probable cause to believe that these medical records can assist in the investigation of a crime, to wit: Murder.

The applicant swears to the following facts to establish probable cause for the issuance of this Medical Record: On December 2, 2000 the patient, Eric Dwayne Miller, died at Rex Hospital as a result of arsenic poisoning. While attending North Carolina State University as a student, Eric Miller, was seen several times at the Student Health Services. These medical records are necessary to assist and aid in the investigation of this crime. It is hereby requested that the North Carolina State University Student Health Services be ordered to provide to the Raleigh Police Department the requested information as soon as possible.
