Hey Margie, I'm thinking of you. I'm sorry I don't have the bed together yet. I haven't finished the stuff for my attorney and I'm exhausted and about to have a nervous breakdown. I'll be in touch as soon as I can. Love you- /

Hello Everyone, Hope you all had a good weekend, I sure you all enjoyed the weather. I really had enough of that hot days. As some of you know I am back in the house. Things are going better at least the walls are up and the bathroom is working 😊. So we have come along ways. I did not have a good week last week my pain level is pretty high and can not get over a blinding headache. 😞 But hey I am still alive!!!!!! So thank God. I do go back to Duke this week hopefully they can give me something more for pain and mostly find out about these headaches. Dealing with all this stress is nuts..... in the fire I lost all the letters Todd wrote me and I had wrote him 2 letter he never recieved before his death they to are gone. You know on my hard days I would always go in my bedroom and read them and somehow I was able to face another day. They was better to me than any pill. Seems everytime one thing gets better another hit comes. I am sorry I have been such a pain to you all I always feel like the needy friend and I am sorry. I do thnak God for each one of you all. I could NOT face it without you. I love you all..... Margie

Thank you for the gift you gave in honor of my brother. I would also like to thank you for taking care of my Mother the way you do. She tells me all the time how bless she is to have you as a friend.

I feel so very helpless when it comes to her, seeing her suffer the way she has to breaks my heart. I know she does without many things she so badly needs, yet she is still worried about everyone elses need. Michelle, please tell all my Mothers friend how thankful I am for them.

One day I would like to share with you all, just what a wonderful Mother she has been to Todd and myself. She has always been the glue that has kept our family together. Now that she needs our help my uncles and aunt does not do anything for her. "Sad"!!!! Mom never says anything bad about anyone of them, I know it hurt her. The lost of Todd has been hard also I just think this time of the year makes it alittle harder on us all.

I spoke with Mom doctor today, she was telling me Mom is going down hill pretty fast. I don't want to believe that but I can see it in her eyes. My world will be lost without her. Not only is she my Mom but my best friend.

,thanks!
