

Washington, D.C. 20535
August 26, 1976

JESSE A. HELMS,
UNITED STATES SENATOR
NORTH CAROLINA
ELECTION LAWS

The Washington Star Newspaper, August 26, 1976,
contained the following article on page A-6:

"HELMS USED HILL OFFICE
TO HOLD A FUNDRAISER

"Sen. Jesse A. Helms, R-N.C., was the host of a fund-raising cocktail party for Stanley C. Burger, a senatorial candidate from Montana, in a congressional office here last night, an apparent violation of federal law for both men.

"Burger, asked about his appearance and its apparent conflict with provisions in the U.S. Code, said he 'had no idea' that federal law prohibited such functions and that he would leave if he knew it to be a fact.

"But he stayed for two hours to mingle with about 60 champagne-drinking guests, including lobbyists for, and members of such groups as the Senior Citizens Conference, the Young Americans for Freedom and the Liberty Lobby.

"About a month ago Helms had distributed a 'dear friend' letter inviting attendance at the reception and stating that he and other senators were to be co-hosts at a fund-raising reception for Burger.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

6- Bureau
① WFO
DPH:hah
(7) hah

56-524-1
Searched _____
Serialized CSK
Indexed _____
Filed CSK

JESSE A. HELMS

"The letter enclosed a pledge card with boxes for check marks of amounts up to $1,000, a notation that information about the donor should be filed with the Federal Election Commission, and the date, time and place for the reception - Room G-219, Dirksen Senate Office Building.

"The U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 603, states that 'whoever, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any person mentioned in Section of this title (basically any senator, congressman, candidate for Congress or persons whose salary is paid from the U.S. Treasury) solicits or receives any contribution of money or other thing of value for any political purpose, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more that three years or both.'"

8/26/76

AIRTEL

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI
FROM: SAC, WFO (56-NEW) (C)

JESSE A. HELMS
U.S. SENATOR
NORTH CAROLINA
ELECTION LAWS
OO:WFO

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are the original plus five copies of an LHM captioned as above.

LHM being submitted for Departmental dissemination if deemed logical.

UACB, WFO conducting no further investigation.

2- Bureau (Enc. 6)
① WFO
DPH:hah
(3)

DPH

Spencer and [unclear]

56-524-2

Searched _____
Serialized CEK
Indexed CEK
CEK

HELMS USED HILL OFFICE TO HOLD A FUNDRAISER

New York Times News Service

Sen. Jesse A. Helms, R-N.C., was the host of a fund-raising cocktail party for Stanley C. Burger, a senatorial candidate from Montana, in a congressional office here last night, an apparent violation of federal law for both men.

Burger, asked about his appearance and its apparent conflict with provisions in the U.S. Code, said he "had no idea" that federal law prohibited such functions and that he would leave if he knew it to be a fact.

But he stayed for two hours to mingle with about 60 champagne-drinking guests, including lobbyists for, and members of such groups as the Senior Citizens Conference, the Young Americans for Freedom and the Liberty Lobby.

About a month ago Helms had distributed a "dear friend" letter inviting attendance at the reception and stating that he and other senators were to be co-hosts at a fund-raising reception for Burger.

The letter enclosed a pledge card with boxes for check marks of amounts up to $1,000, a notation that information about the donor should be filed with the Federal Election Commission, and the date, time and place for the reception — Room G-219, Dirksen Senate Office Building.

The U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 603, states that "whoever, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any person mentioned in Section of this title (basically any senator, congressman, candidate for Congress or persons whose salary is paid from the U.S. Treasury) solicits or receives any contribution of money or other thing of value for any political purpose, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than three years or both."

FILE STRIPPED

Date: 6/28/78

Initials: FE

CONSOLIDATED

Date: 6/28/78

Initials: FE

56-524-3

SEARCHED	INDEXED DLM
SERIALIZED TR	FILED TR
AUG 3 1978
FBI — WASH. F. O.

B