

Department of Health and Human Services statement:

“The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services takes any allegation of misconduct in a licensed child care facility very seriously. As long as this center remains licensed by the State of North Carolina, DHHS will closely monitor to ensure compliance with all applicable state requirements. In addition, we have been working with the Pope Child Development Center to monitor their training and preventive measures to be sure their staff comply with all child care requirements.”