Re: Holland v. Russell
Wake County File Number: 10 CVD 8911

Dear Mr. Browder,

I represented Ms. Holland in the alienation of affection and criminal conversation case against Ms. Russell. We do not wish to engage in a public airing of dirty laundry and will simply say that this case has been through the judicial process and, after hearing the evidence in this case, The Honorable Judge Sasser made extensive findings of fact. Regarding your specific queries, as Ms. Russell is currently under the protection of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, we are not legally permitted to respond to your question concerning the collection of this judgment. Because there are children involved, Ms. Holland declines to comment on Ms. Russell's version of events. My client and I believe the judgment speaks for itself. If you are interested in the specific allegations underlying the judgment, please refer to the numerous findings of fact and conclusions of law within the judgment in the court file. I believe that given the circumstances surrounding this case, the judgment was reasonable and just.

My best regards,

Carolyn Lovejoy
