Plaintiff,

v.

BRADLEY COOPER,
Defendant.

CONSENT ORDER SUSPENDING
CHILD SUPPORT AND CONTINUING
INJUNCTION OF DECEMBER 30, 2008
IN FULL EFFECT

THIS MATTER CAME on to be heard by request of the parties through counsel for the purpose of entering a consent order regarding child support. The parties have agreed to certain stipulations and ask that the court adopt them and make them an order of the court. The court having reviewed the stipulations and the signature of counsel for the parties makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Court entered a Consent Order for Permanent Custody on May 15, 2009, awarding Plaintiffs permanent legal and physical custody of the minor children.
2. Plaintiffs currently have claims against Defendant for temporary and permanent child support.
3. The parties agree that Plaintiffs' claims for temporary and permanent child support should be suspended and held open for later determination. The parties agree that the file should be marked as inactive and shall not be placed on the administrative calendar.
4. The parties further agree that the terms of the consent preliminary injunction entered on December 30, 2008 shall remain in full force and effect, with the exception of paragraph 6, in that the marital residence has been sold at a short sale and no equity was received.
5. The parties waive further findings of fact.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING, THE COURT MAKES THE FOLLOWING

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. To the extent the foregoing findings better represent conclusions of law, they are incorporated by reference herein.

2. The court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and persons to this action.
3. The parties are able to comply with the terms of this order.
4. The parties waive further conclusions of law.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING, it is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

DECREE

1. Plaintiff's claims for temporary and permanent child support are hereby suspended as set forth in G.S. sec. 50-13.10(d).
2. This file shall be marked inactive and come back on for hearing only upon a request by either party.
3. Plaintiffs' claims for temporary and permanent child support shall be held in abeyance and remain open.
4. The terms of the December 30, 2008 preliminary injunction remain in full force and effect with the exception of paragraph 6.
5. The court retains jurisdiction for the entry of further orders.

This the 10th day of June 2009 by consent.
