This is not a joint even. Contributions are not tax deductible as charitable donations for federal income tax purposes. North Carolina law requires political committees to report the full name, mailing address, job title, or profession and name of employer's specific field for each individual whose contribution aggregate is in excess of $50 an election. An individual may contribute $4,000 per election. Corporate contributions and contributions from NC registered lobbyists are prohibited by law. All contributions are required to be made with personal funds and not those of another. The Committees cannot accept contributions from NC registered lobbyists and are not asking for such. If you are a NC registered lobbyist we are providing with you with a copy of this invitation simply to inform you of this event and request that you pass the information along to any interested parties and recommend support where appropriate.
