

Saturday, May 31, 2008

Conservation Days

Apex Community Center, 53 Hunter St.
(Adjacent to Town Hall)
9 am–4 pm

Please join Apex Mayor Keith Weatherly and others like you who are concerned about resource conservation as we celebrate the first ever “Conservation Days” in Apex. You are invited to share, participate, and see firsthand what we as a community can do to conserve and protect our environment and natural resources! Come see how Apex is a community that cares about its residents and their ability to enjoy the Peak of Good Living!

Speakers

Mike Easley, Governor of North Carolina (invited)
Keith Weatherly, Mayor of Apex
Kevin Brice, Triangle Land Conservancy
Elaine Chiosso, Haw River Assembly
Joe Hackney, NC House Speaker (invited)
Sig Hutchinson, Wake County Open Space and Parks
Paul Stam, NC House of Representatives (invited)

Youth Activities

Scrap Exchange: Arts and Crafts
Mayor Weatherly’s Peak Green Award Competition
Check with your school representative for details

Adult Workshops

Understanding Your Water Bill and Plumbing Retrofits—Apex Public Works and Utilities Department, Water Division
Load Management and Energy Conservation—Apex Public Works and Utilities Department, Electric Division
Protecting Land and Water—Triangle Land Conservancy
Sustainable Site Design—Kimley-Horn and Associates, Inc.
Rain Garden Demonstration—NC State Cooperative Extension

Green Exhibitors and Vendors Wanted!

Green and Renewable Energy
Green Plumbing and Building Materials
Green Gardening and Landscaping
Green Cars
Eco-Chic Fashion, Spa, Cosmetics
Organic Foods and Beverages

Co-Hosts

Triangle Land Conservancy
Carolina Conservation Stewardship Assurance Corporation

APEX IS GOING GREEN!

Please contact the Town of Apex Public Works & Utilities Department at 249-3427 for more information or to inquire about becoming an exhibitor or vendor.

Thank you for your support!